

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, health is the most priceless possession of every man, woman and child, and a high level of health is vital to the safety, growth and progress of our state and its many people, and

WHEREAS, Americans today are living longer, healthier lives than ever before in history because of the enormous advances made in medicine and health care services during our lifetime, and

WHEREAS, physicians, medical scientists, and dedicated men and women in the many fields allied to medicine have teamed up to conquer polio, smallpox, diphtheria and other dreaded preventable diseases which once took a heavy toll of life, and

WHEREAS, medicine's endless search for new discoveries and methods to make life free from serious disease or crippling injury and ways to rehabilitate the ill and injured are reaching toward even greater heights, and

WHEREAS, the citizens of our state are blessed with many excellent health services and facilities which have resulted from organized community efforts at teaming up for better health, and

WHEREAS, we strive to encourage our communities to have the vision, the essential teamwork and planning necessary to meet and cope with tomorrow's health needs so that the highest level of health protection and total health care services will be available to all;

NOW THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 16, 1966, as in South Dakota, and call upon the South Dakota State Medical Association, allied health professions, public and private health organizations and agencies, civic organizations and public schools to join in its observance to demonstrate to the people of South Dakota the many health services and facilities that enrich their lives, and to encourage community planning to meet our health needs of the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 4th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six.
